

02 January 2007

H2O VENTURE PARTNERS APPOINTS FIONA YOUNG TO THE TEAM.

H2O extends a warm welcome to Fiona Young, the most recent addition to the expanding H2O team. Fiona studied at Exeter College, Oxford University and subsequently at the College of Law in London. She joins H2O as Head of Corporate Affairs.

Fiona practised law with Richards Butler in London. After a move to Chicago, she was an attorney with a leading US firm, Sonnenschein Nath & Rosenthal, a large company with office in 13 US states. Fiona moved to ICI as an in-house corporate lawyer, where she worked primarily on acquisitions, disposals and finance both in the UK and abroad.

Dr David Kelly, Chief Executive of H2O, said "Fiona's international experience will be of great benefit to H2O, and she joins an excellent team that will be taking the company forward into a new phase of growth and development".

For further information, please call Paul Coleman or David Kelly on: +44 (0)1865 251 000 or email Info@h2ovp.com